Copyright 1905 by
Hart Schaffner & Marx

Men's Suits $10.00 to $22.50.

There's nothing that would please a man half so much as a good business suit. He will be well dressed in one of these suits—and might be well pleased for a long time, too, for ours are clothes of quality.

Boys' Suits $2.00 to $8.50 and $10.00.

Here's a strong department—clothing for the boy. Nothing is half so encouraging to the boy than to be well dressed—it gives him self-respect and ambition to accomplish things. Every style for the youngsters.

Fine Neckwear, Shirts Etc.

Men never get too many Neck Ties—it's impossible you know—and the more the better. We are really anxious to have you see our tie stock—it's superb; and whatever your tie fancy may be you will find it represented in our mammoth display. Fine Shirts $1.00 to $2.50—best quality and fit perfect. Suspenders in individual boxes 50, 75 cents, $1.00, $1.50 and up to $2.50. Men's fine Socks 25 and 50 cents.

PUBLIC SCHOOL PUPILS MAKE PROTEST

They Do Not Want the Plaza Destroyed as Some Have Proposed Doing.

The following very interesting letter, which The Journal is advised, was gotten up by the pupils of Grade 7, Section A, School No. 1, upon their own initiative and without any suggestion whatsoever excepting that caused by reading the articles in The Journal relative to the proposition to use the Plaza as a site for the new City Hall, has just been received:

The Pupils' Letter.

Dear Mr. Editor:
We, the pupils of Grade 7, Section A of School No. 1, ask for a space in your columns to beg that the Plaza be preserved as a historic memorial. Our historical readings of Pensacola tell us that this Plaza was a part of the English plan of the city as it was laid out nearly a hundred and fifty years ago. Then, our Plaza reached from George street, now Palafox, to Charlotte, now Alcañiz, and as far north as Intendencia. Now Seville square, and the Plaza is all that is left of what was once the pride and life of our city.

Shall all this be destroyed and no historical memorial be left? The city has lost Fort George and Fort San Bernardo be sold and destroyed and it has allowed the old trading post of W. M. Pantan & Co. to be forgotten and lost. Shall they build the City Hall on the Plaza and have left no memorial of ancient Pensacola? If the Plaza is used for the City Hall the people will have no place to sit and rest, and they will soon be tempted into evil places, and our beautiful, healthy Pensacola will be come a nest of outlaws and degraded people.

May we then beg that our dear city officials will select another place for the building of the City Hall, and preserve our historic Plaza.
(Signed) M. E. MERRITT,
Sec'y of Grade 7, Section A.

Ausley & Co's Daily Cotton Letter.
New York, Dec. 21.—Liverpool reduced the prices for American middling this morning 6 points to 634 while contracts were down 6 to 8 points caused, it was said, by evening of the holiday period. As a result of poorer catches than was looked for our markets opened about 8 points lower and on covering by the weak long element, which always creeps into a market on bureau day, gradually sold off until March sold at 11.77 and May contracts at 11.90. There was no indication that the bears were inclined to hammer the market, in fact we think the most sanguine of the talent opposed to the market have been lulled with the short crop idea, with the possible exception of Mr. Price, and his following has dwindled rapidly in the past few weeks, and rush to cover their holdings on the slightest indication of advancing tendency. We doubt very much whether Mr. Price is as firm in his belief, so expressed in all of his circulars, as he was some weeks ago, that the crop would reach 11,000,000 bales. We understand that Mr. Jordan has given his pledge that the cotton he has tied up for 15 cents shall not be used against the market, in other words that it shall only be sold to the spinner and not under any circumstances whatever be delivered on future contracts.

There has been numerous rumors that several spot houses were compelled to lay down on their contracts one even going so far as to say that a house short to Mr. Hayne 15,000 bales had notified him they could not fill their contracts, however, we understand since that Mr. Hayne denies this story, but aside from all of this, every report that we receive from the exporting centers is to the effect that it is almost impossible to buy cotton in the interior at any price. We do not think the government report of yesterday was construed as bearish in the least but that the long side of the market has been the popular one for some time and the decline is simply the result of covering by those who do not care to go over a three days duration on either side. We think present prices will look cheap
